Portugal and the Algarve

The Algarve, Portugal's southernmost region, is known for its golden beaches, year-round sunshine, rich culture and exquisite fresh food.

Traditional, safe and friendly towns sit harmoniously with luxury resorts, hotels, marinas, and, of course, award-winning golf courses. Coupled with local and international shopping, family leisure facilities, world-class healthcare and highly regarded international schools, the region continues to thrive as a destination for both holidaymakers, and those seeking to relocate permanently.

The Central Algarve area is particularly popular, with its world-famous 'Golden Triangle', and combines luxury with tradition, beautiful coastlines with breath-taking countryside, and vibrancy with tranquillity, and all within a 20-minute drive from Faro's International Airport.

Whether seeking tranquillity or adventure, the Algarve offers an unparalleled quality of life and endless opportunities for exploration.

LARANJEIRAS
SANTA BÁRBARA

Laranjeiras... a unique development of bespoke, architect designed detached villas that nestle quietly within a gated environment in the unspoilt hills above the quintessential Portuguese village of Santa Barbara de Nexe. This beautiful, well-kept village is an undiscovered hillside gem that boasts an historic white church complete with belltower, shady, tree-lined squares and a good sprinkling of amenities including bars, restaurants, shops and coffee houses. There is also a local market and a well-equipped garage.

This stunning location offers unrivalled sea views and cool summer breezes and yet is only a short drive from the vibrancy and lifestyle activities of the Algarve's 'Golden Triangle' offering sandy beaches, world-class golf courses, renowned restaurants and nightlife and, of course, Faro City and the international airport. The historic market town of Loule is less than ten minute's drive away from the peace and quiet of Laranjeiras and is a bustling and vibrant centre full of galleries, bars, restaurants, cafes and shops, and is also home to the renowned Loule indoor market – a definite must for visitors and locals alike.

Laranjeiras has been thoughtfully and carefully chosen as its location provides the very best lifestyle opportunities that the Algarve and the unspoilt local area has to offer. The development provides a unique opportunity to live with luxury, privacy, convenience and with simply stunning sea views...
